OBITUARY

The Board acknowledged the passing of Ishwar Ganda, a former Christchurch City Councillor and current member of the Riccarton/Wigram Community Board.

The Board reports that:

PART B - REPORTS FOR INFORMATION

1. DEPUTATIONS BY APPOINTMENT

1.1 KEN CAMP, NAVAL POINT CLUB

Ken Camp, Secretary of the Naval Point Club, introduced Jared Pettersson, Club Commodore, who gave a presentation to the Board on the Club's position in the Naval Point/Magazine Bay area. Mr Pettersson reported that to operate effectively the Club needs:

- safe and reliable access to the water
- a clubhouse with office, storage space and social areas
- storage facilities for boats, yachts etc
- space on land for rigging, parking etc.

With a growing membership, and because of earthquake damage, the Club has entered into a partnership with the Canterbury Coastguard to construct a new joint facility to accommodate both organisations. They propose to site the new building on Council land between the two boat launching ramps, and will approach Council staff regarding a lease proposal for the land. In terms of Council assistance, the Club would like to see safer boating access provided for use in southerly conditions.

1.2 CRAIG McGUIGAN, LYTTELTON MAIN SCHOOL

Craig McGuigan, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Lyttelton Main School did not attend the meeting.

1.3 BRIAN RICK, HARBOUR RESILIENCE PROJECT

Brian Rick, one of the co-leaders of the Harbour Resilience Project, from Project Lyttelton, addressed the Board with information on projects currently taking place and being planned for the Ward, including the purchase and establishment of Lyttel Piko as a community co-operative, the establishment of Plenty to Share and future ventures with sustainability and resilience objectives.
